

English I Honors Summer Assignment 2018-2019

We strongly recommend you read one of the following three books. Reading helps increase/improves imagination, focus and concentration, memory, communication, and language development.

If you choose to read one of these books you will participate in an activity the first day of school. Should you choose not to read one of these selections, students will focus on reading strategies and practices during class while the others are doing the activity.

You should consider keeping informal notes about favorite parts, characters, etc. There will be special treats during the activity.

Every student will be required to do a group project based on the summer work, be it the novel or the reading strategies and practices completed on the first day of school.
